

Lotte Salling

GUESS WHO I AM
Wildlife - Rhymes

My nose is so long
that it touches the ground.
To pick up the fruits
and the nuts that I've found.
My memory is good.
And I'll eat any plant!
So guess who I am!
I'm a huge ...

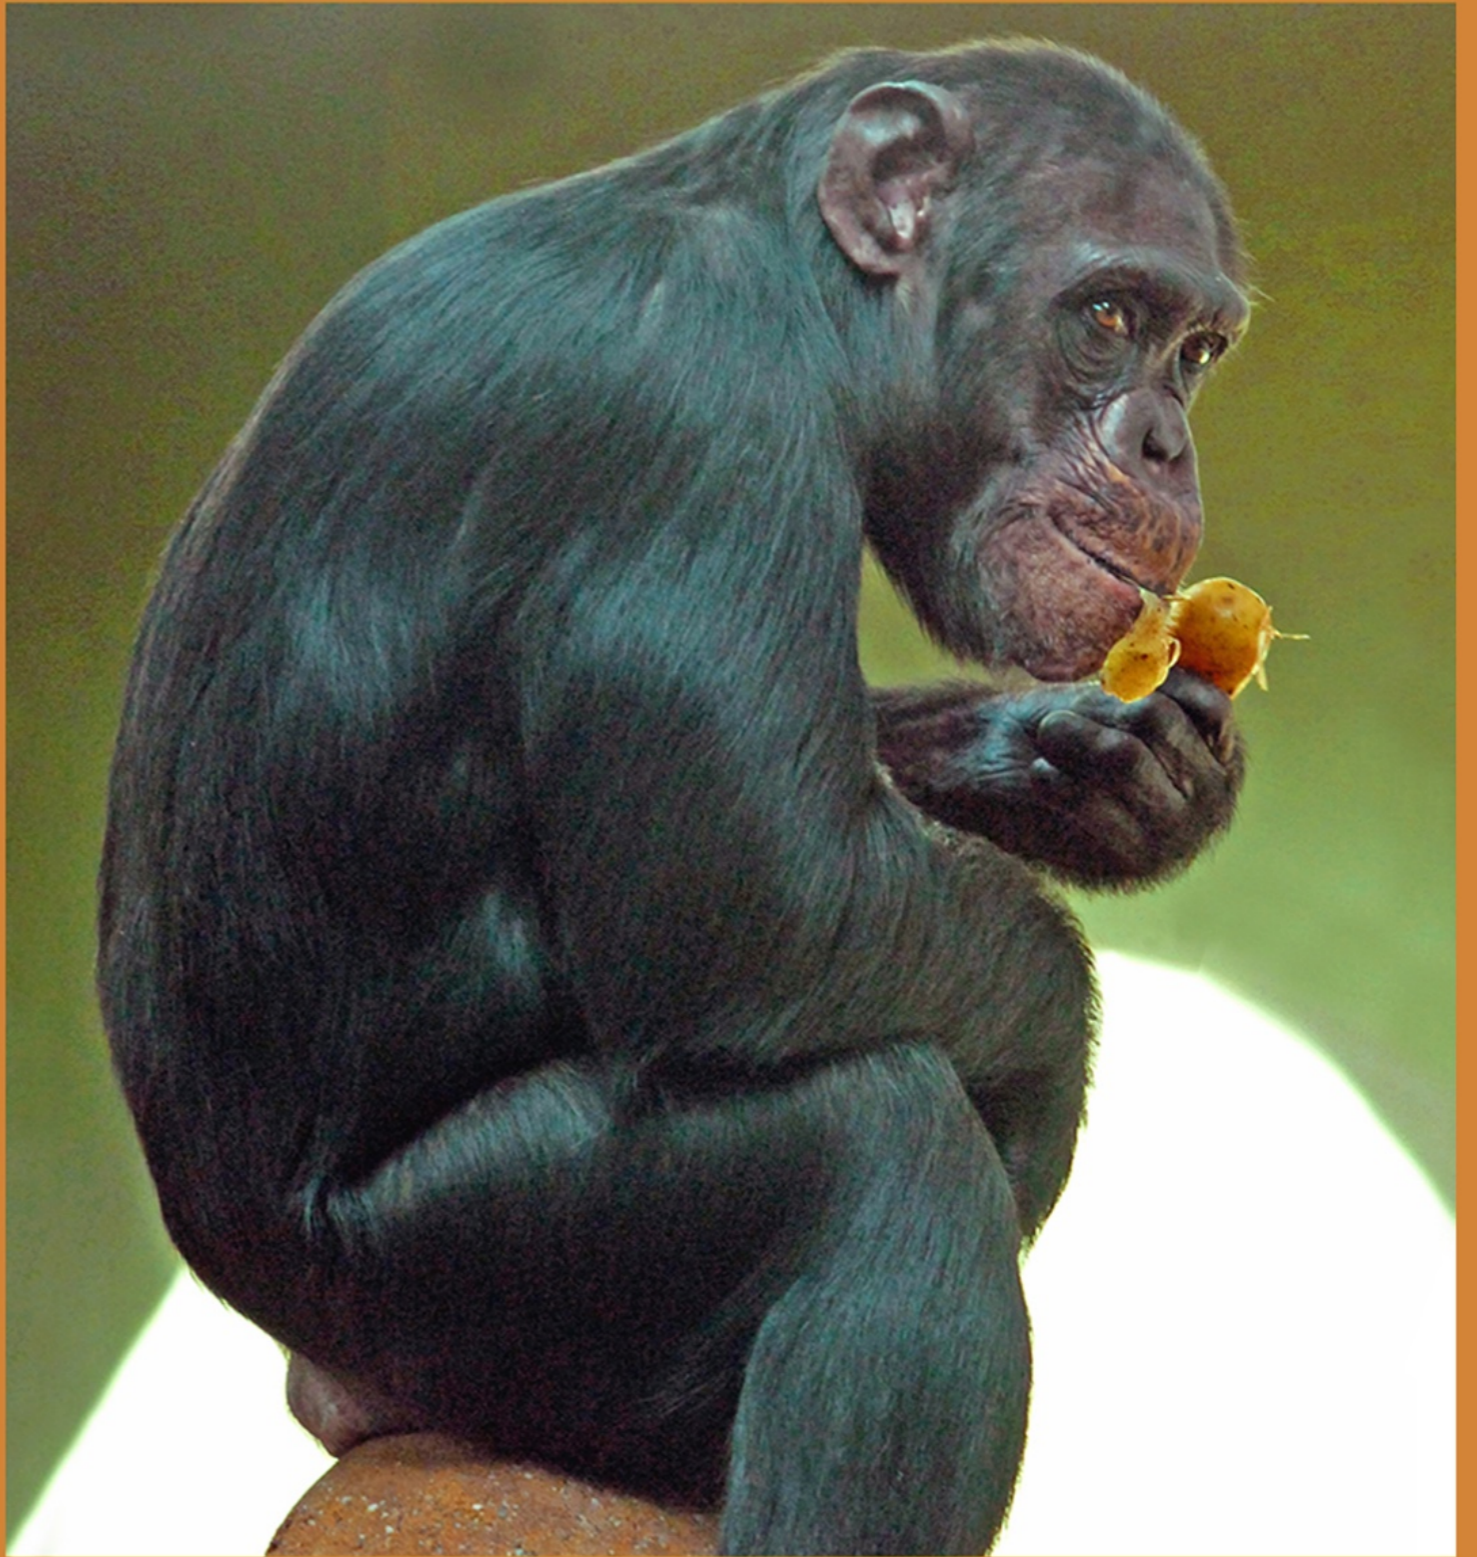

... elephant.

In so many ways
you and I are the same.
I'll go out to play
and I like a good game.
I'll climb any tree,
and I love to run free.
So guess who I am!
I'm a cheerful ...

... monkey.

I've sixty sharp teeth
in a very huge mouth.

I stay in the heat,
mostly far to the south.

I'll bite, if you come
for a swim in the Nile.

So guess who I am!

I'm a green ...

... crocodile.

I look rather friendly,
in spite of my size.
But don't come too close,
now, it wouldn't be wise.
My paws can hit hard,
and my claws like to tear.
So guess who I am!
I'm the powerful ...

... bear.

I'll eat all the leaves
that no others can reach.
I'll stroll the savannah,
but never the beach.
The length of my neck
will make some people laugh!
So guess who I am!
I'm the funny ...

... giraffe.

I'm dressed up in stripes
that are orange and black.
Sometimes I'll go hunting
to grab me a snack.
I'll eat a nice deer,
not a mouse or a spider.
So guess who I am!
I'm the powerful...

... tiger.

The minute I'm born,
I can stand on my feet.
I like to eat corn,
but I never eat meat.
I sound pretty cool,
when I'm squealing my "YeeHaa"
So guess who I am!
I'm the striped little....

... zebra.

It's really absurd,
and I can't explain why:
Although I'm a bird,
I don't know how to fly.
But Hey, I run funny,
I'd make it in showbiz!
So guess who I am!
I'm the fast running ...

... ostrich.

Bye Bye!

GUESS WHO I AM

Text and photos by Lotte Salling
Copyright © Lotte Salling, 2018
www.lottesalling.dk / salling.lotte@gmail.com

Also read:
Guess who I am – Livestock

